STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLE: A resident on the first block of Broadacre Drive reported his 2015 Infinity had been stolen from his driveway during the overnight hours of July 27th into the 28th. The owner reported that he regularly leaves the ignition key in the car but locks the doors. The car was driven across the lawn knocking over the mailbox. On the morning of July 28th the vehicle was found parked in the street in front of the victim's residence. The vehicle had sustained some damage.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF: During the overnight hours of July 27th into the 28th someone spray painted a picture of a duck and the tag "Zoo Kid" on the wall of a mausoleum at the Jesus Bread of Life Catholic Cemetery, 3055 Fostertown Road.

THEFT: Between 12:00 am and 8:00 am on July 28th a total of five vehicles parked at businesses and hotels around the Route 73 and Atrium Way area had their catalytic converters stolen. The criminals targeted mostly Honda and Acura vehicles by cutting off their exhaust systems. (Thieves often target this auto part because they contain expensive metals that can be sold to recyclers. Criminals can remove this part from a vehicle in less than a minute leaving the victim a hefty repair bill.)

ARREST: On July 29th Mount Laurel Police responded to a vacant residence on the 1100 block of Union Mill Road for the report of someone squatting in the residence. Officers found evidence that the home had been forcibly entered and someone was living there. On July 30th officers returned to the residence and found a male and female inside. The investigation led to the arrest of Mathew J. Deoliveira, age 35, of Rio Grande, NJ and Bethanne N. Eck, age 37, of North Cape May, NJ.

Deoliveira was charged with criminal trespass, hindering apprehension by providing a false name to law enforcement, possession of a firearm (a .177 caliber pellet gun), possession of Oxycodone, possession of crystal methamphetamine and possession of less than 50 grams of marijuana. He was also wanted by the Cape May Sheriff's Department. Bail was set at $42,250.00 with no 10% option and he was committed to Burlington County Jail.

Eck was charged with criminal trespass and hindering the apprehension of another by providing false names for Deoliveira. She was released pending a court hearing.
