THEFT: A work truck was broken into while it was parked in the parking lot of a business at 520 Fellowship Road between June 24th and June 25th. Tools were taken.

ASSAULT ON POLICE: At 8:58 pm on June 26th Mount Laurel Police responded to the Hilton Garden Inn, 4000 Atrium Way, for the report of 20 to 30 people fighting. While on route to the hotel a 911 call was received reporting that a female had passed out at the hotel as well. The first officer on scene encountered a crowd of people in front of the hotel. As he began to question some of the bystanders another group of people exited the hotel actively fighting. The officer attempted to break up the fight as other officers arrived. While trying to separate two subjects an officer was punched several times. The officer and a suspect fell to the ground and were kicked by some of the bystanders. The crowd quickly moved away as other officers arrived. Officers from Moorestown, Maple Shade and Evesham assisted in dispersing the crowd after arrests were made. One Mount Laurel Police Officer sustained several cuts to his arms and a concussion. He was treated at a nearby hospital and released.

The investigation revealed that the fight was a result of a family argument that occurred at a wedding reception being held at the hotel. Joseph E. Mooney, age 34, of Philadelphia, PA was arrested and charged with aggravated assault on a police officer. Bail was set at $5,000.00 with 10% option. He posted bail and was released. A 17 year old male from Philadelphia, PA was also charged with aggravated assault on a police officer and released pending a court hearing. An adult female who was a guest at the wedding reception was also transported to the hospital for an unknown medical condition.

All persons are considered innocent unless and until proven guilty in a court of law.
