ARREST: At 5:05 pm on April 29th Mount Laurel Police responded to the TD Bank, 201 Ark Road, for the report of a subject attempting to cash a fraudulent check in the amount of $987.23. Responding officers stopped the suspect in her vehicle as she attempted to flee the bank. Officers arrested Tiyona N. Cobbs, age 19, of Wilmington, NC. She was charged with forgery and attempted theft. Bail was set at $30,000.00 no 10% option and she was committed to the Burlington County Jail.

ARREST: At 1:20 pm On May 1st Mount Laurel Police charged Ronald G. Shaw, age 33, of Logan Township, NJ with shoplifting. Shaw was identified as the suspect who stole $166.00 worth of cigarettes from the Wawa on S. Church Street on April 16th. He was served the charges at the Camden County Jail where he was being held on unrelated charges.

ARREST: At 11:13 pm on May 2nd Mount Laurel Police responded to the Birchfield development for the report of a vehicle in a pond. Officers located a partially submerged vehicle in a pond off of Birchfield Court. The Mount Laurel Fire Department responded to check the vehicle for occupants however, none were found. The investigation revealed that the vehicle was stolen from a residence on East Daisy Lane and then purposely rolled into the water. The suspect, Cierra R. Mitchell age 25, of Neptune, NJ had arrived at her former friend's residence on East Daisy Lane and became enraged when she learned there was another person inside. She forced her way into the residence and stole the keys to the vehicle. Mitchell drove the car to Birchfield Court near the pond where she exited the car and let it roll into the water. Arrest warrants were obtained for Mitchell charging her with burglary, theft of a motor vehicle, and criminal mischief. Bail was set at $85,000.00 with no 10% option. At 6:30 pm on May 3rd Officers arrested Mitchell during a motor vehicle stop on Route 73 near Waverly Avenue. She was committed to the Burlington County Jail in default of bail.

ARREST: At 8:37 am on April 22nd Mount Laurel Police responded to DaVita Dialysis Center on the 100 block of Gaither Drive for the report of a video recorder found in a female employee restroom. Investigators determined that a compact video recording camera had been hidden in the female employee's restroom and positioned to record the occupants. On May 3rd a long time employee of the medical center, David B. Leftridge, age 57, of Sicklerville, NJ was arrested at his residence by the Mount Laurel Police Department with the assistance of the Winslow Police Department. A search warrant was also executed at Leftridge's residence for additional evidence. Leftridge was charged with invasion of privacy and tampering with evidence. Bail was set at $50,000.00 no 10% option and he was committed to the Burlington County Jail. The investigation is ongoing and has yet to determine how long the camera had been in place and how many victims were recorded.
