LEWDNESS: At 4:30 pm on May 5th a resident on Normandy Drive (Park Place development) reported that a man exposed himself to her as she was walking on the 6200 block. The suspect was described as a white male in his 20's, 6 feet tall, wearing a white hooded sweatshirt and tan shorts.

SHOPLIFTING: An employee of J&J Hardware on Ark Road reported that someone stole two flowerpots that were on display outside of the store. The suspect was described as a white female in her late 40's with short brown hair. She was wearing a black jacket and a flowered shirt. She was driving a black Jeep SUV.

FRAUD: On May 5th a resident reported that he responded to an advertisement on Craig's List to purchase an embroidery machine. He sent a MoneyGram for $400.00 to the seller in Kansas City, MO. The victim discovered the advertisement on Craig's List was removed immediately after his money order was redeemed and the seller could not be located.

ARREST: At 7:08 pm on May 5th Mount Laurel Police conducted a motor vehicle stop on Route 73 near Clover Road. During the stop officers arrested Abigail C. Clarhaut, age 23, of Maple Shade, NJ for driving while intoxicated. She struggled with officers during the arrest and attempted to keep them from placing her into a patrol car. Once at the station she continued to be uncooperative. She was charged with driving while intoxicated, resisting arrest, obstruction of the administration of law, and possession of less than 50 grams of marijuana. She was released pending a court hearing.

COMPUTER CRIME: On May 6th a business owner reported that their computer system was infected with ransom ware. The entire company computer system was rendered useless and the hacker demanded payment of 3 bit coins (approximately $1,365.00) to unlock the network. At the time of the report the business owner had not paid the ransom and was researching his options.

BURGALRY: At 3:57 pm on May 6th Mount Laurel Police responded to a residence on Trefoil Terrace for a burglary report. The resident reported that at approximately 3:30 pm she was in the shower on the second floor of her residence when she heard a loud noise. She believed the noise was from a passing rain storm and did not immediately investigate. Later she discovered a front window had been broken. The investigation determined someone broke the window and entered the residence however; the actor left quickly and nothing was taken.
